Staff

- One of our youth part-time has submitted their resignation. We will begin advertising for the position this week and hopefully fill it quickly.

Facilities

- The lights in the circulation area will no longer turn off. We have submitted a work ticket but until it is fixed, those lights will be on when the library is closed.

Programming

- The Lego Contest will be accepting applications through this Friday. Voting will run January 24th -30th.

- We are getting ready to start the Family Reading Program, a grant-funded program being ran by the state. It will encourage parents to read and discuss with their children (of all ages) and increase literacy skills at home. Our first program is scheduled for Saturday, February 15th at 10:30 a.m.

- Cowboy Poetry Story Time will be Wednesday, January 29 @ 10:30. Maria Lisa Eastman will be the guest poet.
Services

- The Bookmobile is still undergoing repairs for the engine and needed an additional part to make the engine compatible. We are hoping to have it back this week.

- The Friends of the Carlin Library donated $4,000 for us to purchase new public computers, monitors, and accessories.

- The Library Van broke down while driving a few weeks ago. We are looking into the steps in replacing it as we are not certain we can maintain it any longer. The Board asked about seeking older mining vans. They asked Antonucci to see how much weight and passenger space is needed and discussed ideas for fundraising.

➤ Review, discussion, and possible action regarding the internet bids received from the e-rate RFP process and recommending a provider to the necessary fiscal agents who are responsible for the current internet contracts at the selected branch library locations.

The Board reviewed the bids and asked Antonucci to see if there is a reason Carlin is struggling to get bids.

Orr motioned to have Antonucci open the discussion with Carlin, Lander, and Eureka regarding e-rate and if they would like to accept any of the internet bids with a second by Gurr. Unanimous, Walsh voted aye. Motion carried.

Budget

➤ Review, discussion, and possible approval of the recommended Eureka County contract budget for Fiscal Year 2020/2021.

- We collected 549 pounds of food for Food for Fines and waived 356.75 in overdue fines.

- The library received a total of 206 applications for the sugar plum tree this year and gifts were received for all of them. That number is down from 215 in 2018, and 221 applications in 2017. The County submitted 64 applications, Green Acres had 9 applications, NYTC had 15 applications, and Highland Manor/Village turned in 118 applications. The youngest applicant was a newborn baby, and the oldest known age was 90 years old.

Trustee Business

- Director Evaluation: Library Board members will be receiving a link from Survey Monkey sent by Amanda Osborne this week. She is hoping to have responses back by February 5th so the agenda can be posted on time for the next meeting. As before, each member will fill out their response and HR will average the evaluations together. Gurr discussed the possibility of Antonucci also doing a self-evaluation.

Orr motioned to endorse a proclamation declaring the Elko-Lander-Eureka County Library a Census 2020 partner and supporter.
